FESTIVAL 2009

Artist Application (painting & sculpture)

Deadline September 5, 2009

Located in charming and sophisticated Carmel-by-the-Sea, along California's breath-taking Central Coast, the Carmel Art & Film Festival promises four days of total arts immersion. The festival will include: film, music, fine art, and photography, showcased throughout the picturesque village and the historic Sunset Cultural Arts Center – a gorgeous multi-use facility that includes exhibition space, lecture halls and a world class renovated 700 seat theatre with plush seating, beautiful architecture and superior acoustics. The director of the Sundance Film Festival is curating the film portion of the event, juried fine art and photography exhibitions will open that weekend, with outdoor projection photography exhibits, art lectures, music, and fine wine and food all promising to attract art lovers from all corners. The Carmel Art and Film Festival will run from October 8th – 11th.

The photography exhibition will hang at the Sunset Center, with the opening reception held as a kick off to the festival. The photography exhibition, however, will run the entire month of October. Out of all applications, 50 photographers will be chosen for the show, and of those, a group of ten will be selected for a gallery exhibition in New York City, and one will be selected for a feature in ARTWORKS Magazine.

- Flat booth fee of $375. No commissions charged for art sales.
- 10' x 10' open-sided tent will be supplied and set up for each artist.
- Artist listing in event catalog.
- Artist Relations – concierge services and booth sitters.
- Dedicated volunteer staff.

IMPORTANT: The application fee is $40 per artist. If you are accepted in the art show, your application fee will be applied to your booth fee.

ALL APPLICANTS WILL RECEIVE A 1 YEAR SUBSCRIPTION TO ARTWORKS MAGAZINE – a $24.95 value. This offer is to all artist that apply to the art show, whether they make it in this year or not. Your subscription will start with the next issue following receipt of your application.
